

Copyright & Advertising

A Practical Guide

Australian Copyright Council

Publication #66v3

September 1997

First published as Bulletin 66 Copyright & Advertising December 1988
Revised and reprinted July 1992 and September 1997

Publication #66v3

ISSN 0311-2934

ISBN 1 875833 46 3

© Australian Copyright Council 1997

For enquiries about reproduction or other uses of this publication, please contact the Australian Copyright Council.

Cover design by Heidi Reiderer of Organised Design, with assistance from Leanne Barnett.

Australian Copyright Council
3/245 Chalmers Street Redfern, NSW 2016 ACN 001 228 780
Telephone: (02) 9318 1788 Fax: (02) 9698 3536 Email cpright@copyright.org.au
Internet: <http://www.copyright.org.au>

Copyright & Advertising

Table of contents

1: INTRODUCTION	1
1.1 Who is this publication for?	1
1.2 Overview of this publication	1
1.3 Our aims in this publication.....	1
1.4 Sources of copyright law, & references to legislation & cases	2
1.5 Updating of publications.....	2
1.6 Other publications.....	2
2: USING PRE-EXISTING COPYRIGHT MATERIAL.....	3
2.1 Some uses of copyright material in advertising.....	3
a) Scanning text, photographs and art work	3
b) Dubbing music and sound recordings, including sampling music	3
c) Reproducing photographs and film footage	4
d) Photographing and filming art work and craft work.....	4
e) Photographing and filming buildings and people	5
f) Using slogans, names and titles.....	5
2.2 When do you need a copyright clearance?.....	5
a) Is the material protected by copyright?.....	7
b) Protection is automatic.....	8
c) What copyright does not protect.....	9
d) Is it a use the copyright owner controls?	12
e) Distinguishing the copyright from the physical article.....	13
f) Has the copyright expired?.....	14
g) Will the proposed use infringe copyright?	16
2.3 Special cases where a copyright clearance is not required.....	16
a) Sculptures and craft works publicly displayed	17
b) Buildings and models of buildings	17
c) Incidental inclusion in a film or television broadcast.....	17
2.4 Getting a copyright clearance: where to start.....	17
a) Published works.....	17
b) Artworks & photographs: licences from VI$COPY	18
c) Photographs held in photo libraries.....	18
d) Newspapers.....	19
e) Music.....	19
f) Film and video	21
g) Government publications, flags and money	21
h) Some other general points	21
i) When you find the rights holder, what do you ask for?.....	22
j) Further information.....	22
3: CREATING OR COMMISSIONING NEW MATERIAL.....	23
3.1 Are you producing something which is protected by copyright?.....	23
3.2 What rights apply?	23
3.3 Who owns copyright?.....	23
a) The author is the first owner of copyright (sometimes).....	24
b) Exceptions to the general rule	25
c) Applying the rules of ownership.....	27

4: DEALING WITH THE COPYRIGHT: ASSIGNING AND LICENSING.....	28
4.1 Assigning and licensing copyright	28
4.2 Contracts generally	29
a) Points to note.....	29
b) Stamp duty	29
4.3 Agreements with creators	30
4.4 Agreements with clients.....	30
5: LAW REFORM AND THE ADVERTISING INDUSTRY.....	32
5.1 The Copyright Amendment Bill 1997.....	32
a) Moral Rights	32
b) Employed journalists' copyright.....	33
5.2 Review of the Copyright Act by the Copyright Law Review Committee.....	33
5.3 Inquiry into the Designs Act	34
APPENDIX 1: COMMON QUESTIONS.....	35
a) We want to parody a song of a famous artist and use a “sound alike” artist to record the song. Can we do this?.....	35
b) I wish to include some work which I created for my former employer in my portfolio. Can I do this or do I have to obtain their permission first?.....	35
c) A client has asked me for all the computer disks and hard copies of work which I have created for them. Do I have to hand them over?.....	35
d) My client has gone to another agency and they have published advertisements which are similar to the advertisements which I created for them. Can I do anything to prevent them from continuing the campaign?...	35
e) My client has been making their own media bookings rather than having me make the bookings on their behalf. This reduces the media commission and service fees that I receive. Can I do anything to prevent them from doing this?.....	36
f) How do I avoid having disputes about ownership of copyright with my clients?	36
g) My client has provided me with some material to work with which I suspect may infringe copyright. How do I protect myself against being held liable for infringement of copyright?	36
APPENDIX 2: OTHER RELEVANT LAWS.....	37
Registrable materials	37
Designs	37
Trade names and logos	38
Passing off.....	38
Deceptive or misleading conduct.....	39
Confidential information	39
APPENDIX 3: TABLE OF CASES.....	41
OTHER PUBLICATIONS FROM THE COPYRIGHT COUNCIL.....	42