

Papers from 12th Biennial Copyright Law & Practice Symposium, November 2005

---

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| The Government’s copyright policy agenda _____  | 6   |
| The Hon. Philip Ruddock, Attorney-General   |     |
| The globalisation of copyright _____  | 10  |
| The Right Hon. Sir Robin Jacob  |     |
| Fair use? Fair dealing? _____   | 20  |
| Melissa de Zwart  |     |
| Fair use – fair go? _____   | 38  |
| Kate Gilchrist  |     |
| Performers and the Creative Commons _____   | 46  |
| Simon Whipp   |     |
| Copyleft in practice: issues and perspectives _____   | 51  |
| Michael Fraser  |     |
| The Digital Agenda – an international and comparative review _____  | 55  |
| Sam Ricketson   |     |
| Internet intermediary liability: a comparative analysis in the context of the Digital Agenda reforms _____                | 70  |
| David Lindsay   |     |
| Practising reality: Indigenous interests in intellectual property _____   | 87  |
| Jane Anderson   |     |
| Music copyright: an economic perspective on industry practice and government policy reform _____                          | 98  |
| Theo Papadopoulos   |     |
| Copyrights, clean air and bazaars: the economics of market making _____   | 110 |
| Flavio M. Menezes   |     |
| Choosing your friends wisely: the amicus curiae in key copyright cases and its potential to affect copyright policy _____ | 124 |
| Mary Wyburn   |     |