Membership of Copyright Society 2010: application/renewal

If you have a special interest or experience in copyright and related rights, you are eligible for membership of the Copyright Society. You must be nominated by a member of the Society, and the application approved by the Management Committee. If you have been a member before, it is not necessary to be nominated again.

Please note: membership is for the calendar year (January to December).

Standard member – $138

Corporate member – $330: available to individuals working for an organisation in Australia or New Zealand. Membership provides benefits to four other nominated people in the member’s organisation (“nominated participants”) in the member’s city. Nominated participants may be varied from time to time. An organisation may have more than one corporate member (for example, where the organisation has offices in more than one city, or the organisation wants to have more than 4 nominated participants).

Academic member – $83: available to a full-time academic at an approved educational institution in Australia or New Zealand.

Student member – $25: available to a full-time student at an approved educational institution in Australia or New Zealand for a maximum of 3 years.
