

CONTENTS

1. About this book

- 1.1 Film and music in educational institutions
- 1.2 What does this book cover?
- 1.3 Information, not legal advice
- 1.4 Glossary

2. Copyright basics for screen and sound

- 2.1 What is copyright?
  - 2.1.1 What is protected by copyright?
  - 2.1.2 Who gets copyright?
  - 2.1.3 How long does copyright last?
- 2.2 When is copyright infringed?
  - 2.2.1 Licences & permissions
  - 2.2.2 What is a 'substantial part'?
- 2.3 Exceptions to infringement
  - 2.3.1 Fair dealing exceptions
  - 2.3.2 Exceptions specific to the education sector
- 2.4 Moral rights
  - 2.4.1 What are moral rights?
  - 2.4.2 Defences to moral rights infringement
- 2.5 Performers' rights
- 2.6 Frequently asked questions

3. Copying & communicating TV and radio broadcasts

- 3.1 Overview of the statutory licence scheme for broadcasts
  - 3.1.1 What is an educational institution?
  - 3.1.2 "For an educational purpose"
- 3.2 How the statutory licence scheme for broadcasts works
  - 3.2.1 What can be copied
  - 3.2.2 Making preview copies
  - 3.2.3 Using resource centres

- 3.2.4 Catch-up TV and the internet
- 3.3 Communicating broadcasts
  - 3.3.1 Uploading to a server/CMS/LMS
  - 3.3.2 Emailing to staff and students
  - 3.3.3 Lending to staff and students
- 3.4 Notice and record-keeping requirements
  - 3.3.1 Marking copies
  - 3.3.2 Communicating copies
  - 3.3.3 Record-keeping
- 3.5 Frequently asked questions

4. Screening TV and radio broadcasts

- 4.1 Section 28
- 4.2 Classes and educational purpose
  - 4.2.1 Screening in a class
  - 4.2.2 Screening to a class
  - 4.2.3 Screening outside a classroom
- 4.3 Screening for non-educational purposes
  - 4.3.1 Boarding houses and common rooms
  - 4.3.2 Rainy days and excursions
- 4.4 Frequently asked questions

5. The digital classroom

- 5.1 Media streaming services
  - 5.1.1 Streaming from a server/LMS/CMS
  - 5.1.2 Contractual undertakings
  - 5.1.3 Streaming from Netflix/YouTube/Spotify/etc
- 5.2 Distance learning
  - 5.2.1 Where the statutory licences apply
  - 5.2.2 Where the statutory licences do not apply
- 5.3 Podcasts
  - 5.3.1 Podcasts of broadcast material
  - 5.3.2 Online-only podcasts

- 5.4 Open access resources
  - 5.4.1 Check open licence terms
  - 5.4.2 Creative Commons
  - 5.4.3 Other open access licences
- 5.5 Section 200AB
  - 5.5.1 How to apply Section 200AB
  - 5.5.2 When can I use Section 200AB?
- 5.6 Frequently asked questions

6. Using sound recordings

- 6.1 Blanket licences
- 6.2 Copying sound recordings
  - 6.2.1 Copying by primary and secondary schools
  - 6.2.2 Copying by universities
  - 6.2.3 Copying by TAFEs and other educational institutions
- 6.3 Classes
  - 6.3.1 Use of recordings in films created by students
  - 6.3.2 Playing sound recordings in class
  - 6.3.3 Streaming sound recordings in class
- 6.4 Podcasts
- 6.5 Frequently asked questions

7. Concerts, film screenings and other public events

- 7.1 Film screenings
- 7.2 Concerts and live music
  - 7.2.1 Primary & secondary schools
  - 7.2.2 Universities
  - 7.2.3 TAFEs & other educational institutions
- 7.3 Plays and dramatic theatre
  - 7.3.1 Primary & secondary schools
  - 7.3.2 Universities
  - 7.3.3 TAFEs & other educational institutions
- 7.4 Musicals and grand rights works

- 7.5 Recording music at school events
  - 7.5.1 Primary & secondary schools
  - 7.5.2 Universities
  - 7.5.3 TAFEs & other educational institutions
- 7.6 Background music and TV
  - 7.6.1 TVs and radios in public spaces
  - 7.6.2 Background music during concert/theatre intervals and foyers
  - 7.6.3 Background music at sports days, festivals and other events
- 7.7 Frequently asked questions